Students with potential and outstanding performance in sports or arts are often restricted by various barriers, such as high costs of training, equipment, or competitions. These students could become elite in the future if they receive subsidies and adequate training in sports or arts. The purpose of this scheme is to provide financial support for students attending schools under the Tung Wah Group of Hospitals who have demonstrated outstanding performance in sports or arts. Under the scheme, students can develop their potential and strive for exceptional achievements. If students are interested, please contact our teacher, Mr. Fong Yuk Wah, via Office 365 on or before 6th December, 2024 (Friday).

Target Groups:

Students who are studying in secondary schools, primary schools, and special schools under the Tung Wah Group of Hospitals, possessing:

- 1) Qualified academic results and good conduct;
- 2) Potential and outstanding performance in sports or arts (such as achieving global or Hong Kong rankings, obtaining good results in high-level competitions, etc.), along with continuous training.

Preference may be given to students from underprivileged families.

For enquiries, please contact our teacher, Mr. Fong Yuk Wah.
